To

The Chief Secretary to Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore

SIR,

I have the honor to state that whenever large consignments of bales of paper are received from the contractors, it has been the practice to employ coolies for storing the bales, ~~and~~ opening them and storing the reams in the stores, and to pay the wages of the coolies from the contingent grant of the Stationery Depot. The Comptroller's office has been admitting these charges all along but now wants sanction of Government to be obtained for incurring such charges. I therefore request that sanction may be kindly accorded for incurring the expenditure, as without the help of cooly labour to carry thousands of reams of paper, it is not possible to arrange to store the paper promptly and thus protect it from exposure and deterioration.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

B Puttaiya
Superintendent.

fully occupied in the work of counting and packing articles of Stationery to be supplied to departments and to carry light bundles, &c. The hardy men among them are also employed to carry reams along with the coolies.

Under these circumstances, I find it absolutely necessary to employ outside coolies temporarily for the purpose. The work does not even occupy a month. I therefore request that sanction may be kindly accorded for the employment of outside cooly labour for opening bales of paper and storing the reams in the Stationery Stores and to kindly authorise the Comptroller to admit the charges incurred thereon.
